Section 1.1 Short Title

This enactment shall be known as the “The Land Office Establishment and Land Acquisition Act of 2017” (“Act”).

Section 1.2 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to establish a Land Office to reacquire and restore lands to the Tribe, and to address other land-related matters for the Tribe as authorized by law.

Section 1.3 Findings

The Tribe has current and future needs for real property for housing, community development, government facilities and infrastructure, protection of historic and cultural resources, economic development, and restoration of the Tribe’s land base; therefore, the Legislature has determined that the acquisition of real property including allotments and interests in allotment is in the best interest of the Tribe.

Section 1.4 Land Office

(a) There is hereby established a Department of Land, which shall be known as the Land Office (“Land Office”). The Land Office shall be located with the Executive branch of government, and shall include one Director selected upon nomination by the Chairman and confirmation by the Legislature.

(b) The Land Office shall develop, plan, and coordinate activities associated with the Tribe’s lands and the acquisition of additional lands by the Tribe.

(c) The Land Office shall develop a short-term plan and a long-term plan for the acquisition of additional lands by the Tribe.

(d) The Land Office shall take all steps necessary to participate in to the fullest extent possible, and to take advantage of the benefits of, the federal land buyback program established in conjunction with the Cobell settlement, and in any other federal or private programs or services to assist with the acquisition of lands by the Tribe. Involving but not limited to cooperative agreements with the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA).

(e) The Land Office is hereby authorized and directed to purchase all allotments and interests in allotments that may become available from time to time and that are owned in whole or in part by members of the Tribe and/or others, subject to an appropriation of funds in an Annual Budget or budget modification for such purposes. The Land Office shall promptly notify the Speaker of the Legislature of any and all allotments or interests in allotments owned by members of the Tribe and/or others that become available for purchase by the Tribe.
