Section 1.1 Short Title

This enactment shall be known as the “Kiowa Gaming Commission Reporting and Ordinance Modification Act of 2019” (“Act”).

Section 1.2 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to direct the Kiowa Gaming Commission (“KGC”) to provide the Tribe, Chairman, and Legislature with regular and up-to-date reports on the operation of the Tribe’s gaming regulatory, and to modify the ordinance bring the KGC into compliance with the new Constitution of the Kiowa Tribe (“Tribe”).

Section 1.3 Findings

(a). Since 2006, the KGC, managed by a Board of Commissioners, has operated the Tribe’s regulatory.

(b). In May 2017, the voters of the Tribe adopted a new Constitution (“Constitution”). The Constitution separates the functions of government into branches including an Executive branch (Chairman and Departments), a Legislative branch (Legislature, formerly the Business Committee), and a Judicial branch (new Court system). The Constitution provides for Boards to be created by law and to be located in the Executive branch of government, with Board members selected by nomination by the Chairman and confirmation by the Legislature. The Constitution requires all Boards to follow the laws of the Tribe. See, Const., Art. VI, Sec. 6(i).

(c). The Tribe’s former Business Committee created the KGC by enacting a Ordinance for the KGC by Resolution, with the Business Committee retaining certain powers including approving amendments the Ordinance.

(d). The Legislature has determined the need to obtain regular, up-to-date reports from the KGC, and to modify the Ordinance to bring the KGC into compliance with the new Constitution.

Section 1.4 Reports from the KGC

(a). The KGC and its Board of Commissioners shall be considered a Board as defined in Article VI, Section (6)(i) of the Constitution.

(b). The KGC and its Board of Commissioners shall provide the Chairman and Legislature with a monthly, written financial statement by the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month. The KGC shall also provide the Chairman and Legislature with a written report on April 1st of each year detailing to the status of the Tribe’s regulatory operations and financial condition.

Section 1.5 Modifications to the KGC Ordinance

The Legislature hereby approves the modifications to the KGC Reporting and Ordinance Modification Act of 2019, attached hereto.
